Mary Rezny

My fine art: evolving and revolving

Mary S. Rezny is a photo-mixed media artist, based in Lexington, KY since 1976. Her studio in the Distillery District doubles as a gallery for her current art, as well as for that of established and emerging artists. Rezny is a 2009 Kentucky Foundation for Women grant recipient. Her work is exhibited regionally in galleries and juried exhibitions, and is included in the permanent collection of The Art Museum of the University of Kentucky. Her photographs have been included in two recent public art projects: she was one of two photographers chosen for the LexTran-LexArts 2009 public art display TransLucent in the downtown transit center and in 2010, her work was selected for inclusion on Lexington's Legacy Trail.

This summer she was in a two person exhibition in Chicago's Logsdon 1909 Gallery "New Perspectives" and has been the official photographer for LexArts Horse Mania. Her next exhibit will be a three person exhibition in her studio/gallery "Present in Landscape" which opens Friday September 17th during the city wide Gallery Hop.

Call for Prints

Annual Print Show

The annual print show is open to all paid members of the club who have attended at least three (3) club meetings and/or club functions during the calendar year in which the show occurs and prior to the month of the show.

The show is in November and coincides with the November Gallery Hop. The Club provides a reception for the opening night - Nov 19.

Spontaneous Wine Country Photo Op

Lover's Leap winery has invited the Club to visit them during harvesting and wine-making at the vineyard in Lawrenceburg. Since they can't predict exactly when the grapes will be ready, we are going to put out the call to all the interested parties when the grapes come in. It should be a grape—great time.
