First Thursday

April 7 - Get Control of Yourself.

What are all those buttons and settings for on your camera? What do they actually do? How do you make them do what they're supposed to do?

Here's your chance to find out. Bring your camera (and the manual!) to this meeting and ask some of our more experienced photographers about their equipment. This is a no-pressure way to learn where everything is and to get familiar with the controls on the camera, what they do and why you would use them.

Last Call - Images from the Tabletop shoot.

If you participated in the January First Thursday Tabletop shoot please send your best image from each table to Staticmoments@gmail.com

This is the last call for images

Club Field Trip

Mark Your Calendars for July 28-31.

John Snell will be leading us on another trip to the Blue Ridge Parkway/Smokies area the weekend of July 28-31. We'll plan to stay in Waynesville, NC and make our day trips from there. More specifics, including sign-up sheets, will be provided in the coming months.

“Capture The Light” - Bluegrass Equine Photography Workshop - May3 - 5 Matt Wooley

This workshop is in Lexington, Kentucky, the Heart of Bluegrass Horse Country. We start the workshop at our home farm and riding arena, with an eye to composition, conformation and creative lighting. The class then goes on the road capturing great imagery at Keeneland, Old Friends Retirement, Ken McPeek's Training Operation, and Shadwell Farm.

The Spring Workshop, conducted by EquiSport Photos, is May 3-5, 2011, conveniently scheduled for the week between the Rolex 3-Day Event and the Kentucky Derby. This intermediate level class is designed for those who want to take their equine photography to the next level, either for their own enjoyment, or on a commercial level.
