Breaking the Rules...

Mary Rezny operates an innovative studio and gallery in the emerging Distillery District on Lexington's Manchester Street. According to the studio's website, "M.S. Rezny Studio/Gallery fosters an awareness and appreciation of the visual arts by representing and exhibiting contemporary, professional, experimental and innovative artists".

Ms Rezny provided the following:

Remnants: Photography and Sculpture by Amanda J. Cawby, Melissa T. Hall and Page Turner

"Remnants" is a body of work produced by three artists brought together by a common fascination with the scraps, mementos, leftovers, sentimental objects, and traces left behind by others. Sculptors Cawby and Turner use the actual physical remnants from people's lives in their complex assemblages, while photographer Hall uses the idea of people's actions leaving behind a vestige or trace to fuel her conceptual images.

Exhibit on view through September 30th

Artist Reception September 19th, 5-8pm

Melissa T. Hall is a fine art photographer based in Lexington, Kentucky. She has a B.S. in Computer Science and Mathematics and a daytime career as a programmer where she originally became acquainted with digital imaging.

First Thursday

Thank you to Joe Omielan and Charlie Zehnder for an informative and fun presentation in September on achieving appropriate lighting without breaking the bank.

On October 2, Dave Perry will be on hand for something a little different. Dave has challenged us to “Tell a Story in Three Photos or Less”.

While it is not a competition, we are going to handle submissions in a similar fashion so Dave will have a chance to review our work prior to the Oct 2 meeting.

Those who wish to participate should size their photos the same way they do for club competitions (no more than 1920 pixels wide and 1080 pixels high). They need to be JPEG files. File names need to start with the number indicating the order for the story (1, 2, or 3) and the name of the photographer (ie. 1_Member.jpg).

Send your submissions to first.thursday.ccc@gmail.com

The submission deadline is 11:50 p.m. on Sunday Sept. 28.

Get out there and shoot something!

And the Winner is ...

Paris Night & Day: Masterworks of Photography from Atget to Man Ray opens October 3, 2014–January 11, 2015
 Fifth Third Gallery

Some of the greatest names in photographic history appear in Paris Night & Day. This exhibition features vintage prints by French nationals and international photographers who worked in Paris, including Eugène Atget, Jacques-Henri Lartigue, Brassai, Ilse Bing, Henri Cartier-Bresson, Bill Brandt, André Kertész, and Man Ray. The exhibit comprises works ranging from the lingering realist perspective of the late 19th century, through modernist experiments in the early 20th, to the startling world of Surrealist photography in the 1930s. Lovers of photography will delight in the many iconic images to be seen.

“Wind, Water and Wilderness”

Here’s a unique opportunity for Club members to display at Gallery 33 (Slade) for November and December 2014.

Submit prints at the Oct. 16 Club meeting. Requirements for size and framing are the same as for Print Show, but also include appropriate packaging for transport.

Prints will be hung Nov. 1 with the reception Sunday Nov. 2 (2-5 p.m.)
