Blue Ridge Parkway Trip
June 10th-13th

Our 2021 Blue Ridge Parkway trip is scheduled for June 10th-13th. The time of this year's trip has been moved up from its usual end-of-July time frame in order to take advantage of the rhododendron and flame azaleas that will typically be blooming along the parkway at that time of year. Other seasonal wildflowers we don't typically see on our trips will be blooming at that time. We're also adding more recommended shooting locations to the list, in order to provide some variety from the trips we've done previously. Feel free to go ahead and reserve a room by calling 1-800-621-1260.

Robert C. May Photography Lecture Series: Elinor Carucci

Elinor Carucci lives an examined life. As a teenager in Israel, she began photographing her mother, father and grandparents with intimacy and openness about the human body that reflects the culture in which she was raised. In the years that followed, she documented milestones along the way: immigrating to New York in her 20s and working as a belly dancer; her visceral connection to her children when she became a mother in her 30s; a crisis in her marriage. Her most recent book, Midlife, examines her transforming body and evolving relationships with her husband and her twins, now teenagers themselves. This live lecture is free and available at 4 p.m., Friday, March 5, on Zoom. Participants must preregister.
