About our Judges

Dan Silvestri is a self taught photographer who developed an interest in photography during his high school years. In 1969 he noticed a commercial photography studio and walked in and asked if they needed any help. On the basis of a small black and white portfolio he accidentally began his career. He attended Eastern Kentucky University and the University of Kentucky but never graduated due to photographic distractions .

In 1974, Dan co-founded Impact Photography , a studio which specializes in commercial, industrial and advertising photography. After three years, he became the sole owner of what is now the largest commercial studio in central Kentucky, and has produced advertising Images for national, regional and local clients to present day. His work has appeared in all forms of media and has earned him numerous competition awards and has established a reputation for creative and technically superb images.

Dave Huntsman's love of photography is visible in every image he creates. His photography has been exhibited at Disney's Epcot Center and proudly displayed and cherished by many collectors. Mr. Huntsman is a Fellow in the American Society of Photographers. Dave was honored by Kodak with the "Gallery Elite Award". He has been awarded KY "Best of Show" and "Photographer of the Year eight times. Mr. Huntsman's artistic, creative and abilities have earned him the distinction of being the first of only two photographers to ever receive the Kodak Gallery Award in all four categories in a single year. He has earned 21 Kodak Gallery Awards.

Mr. Huntsman is a Past President of the Kentucky Professional Photography Association and received the Professional Photographers of America "National Award" for service to the profession of photography.

First Thursday Nov. 4

Getting your images on different media so they last a long time. Get some pointers on different options for displaying your images and/or using them for gifts. Bring some examples to share with folks if you've done this (i.e., put on metal, calendars, ornaments, ...)

Dave recently retired as an Affiliate International Photographic Jury Chairman and Juror who has judged at the local, state, regional and international level. These opportunities have allowed him to evaluate and enjoy some of finest images from the top image makers around the world.

In his leisure time, Dave enjoys the great outdoors, scuba/cave diving, Vintage Motorcycle Roadracing, Model Railroad and Cowboy Action Shooting. He and his wife, Lucie, also enjoy social ballroom dancing. They have a daughter and five incredible grandchildren. David Perry was born in Lexington and started taking photographs for the Herald- Leader in 1967 while he was still a senior at Tates Creek High School. He worked for the newspaper through college, earning a bachelor's degree in telecommunications from the University of Kentucky in 1973.

And he still hasn't put down his camera, although the number of images he's captured and published is staggering. His favorite part of the job: "documenting a community and state that have experienced many changes over 37 years." He also notes that many faces on the national and international scene seem to find their way to Kentucky, and into David's camera. A highlight of his career was a trip to Japan to photograph Kentuckians being trained in how to build automobiles for Toyota's first U.S. plant. He's also proud of covering three Final Four basketball championship games, and of being published in the Best of Photojournalism yearbooks.
